CLAY AND CALHOUN .- The ' American Democrat, published at Macon, itself an advocate of Mr. Calhoun, has the following in relation to these ino distinguished Americans:

"Mr. Calhoun and Mr. Clay are not only the for of great political parties, but an honor to heir country—their age—and the American nme every American citizen should cherish them as the common property and glory of his country; it is between these two, probably the realest living minds of the age, that we desire to see the race for the Presidency, in 1844. Both of them are Americans—both of them are patrineither of them would descend to anything their feelings and sympathies are in unison with the glory of their country, and the pros. enty and happiness of the people."

A PROPER AND IMPORTANT DECISION .-- A LONdon paper says: "Sir J. K. Bruce gave judgment the Vice Chancellor's Court last week on a coint respecting wills. A testator in 1834 made will, by which he gave a share of his estate to is daughter and her issue; but by a codicil, adad in 1836, he provided that his property should ass over to other persons if his daughter should ger marry. The daughter did marry, and the other persons" stepped forward to claim the money. The Judge said that all such restraints pon marriages were void by the English law; and the declaration of the Court was that the lady bould keep the money."

ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER GONE .-Mr. James Newell, an old soldier of the Revolu-180, who fought at the battle of Lexington and Yorktown, and at the taking of Ticonderoga, aed in this city on Saturday morning last. He ad not join in the festivities of the completion of he Bunker Hil Monument on the 17th ult. on account of illness. Boston Atlas.

IF We have understood, says the Flemings. burg (Ky.) Whig, of the 22d inst., that there were ax negroes ran away from Mason County, a few nights since. They were to be conveyed across the river by an abolitionist from Ohio, who was m waiting for them at the river, on the Kentucky

Fire.-On Saturday afternoon last, on the outh side of Staten Island, a barn, belonging to Mr. Joseph Seguine, was struck with lightning and consumed, with a wagon-house. He lost two valuable horses, and all his wheat, rye and hy, just gathered in. No insurance.

Bicknell's Philadelphia Reporter says: The money world will continues calm. A heavy sale of Carpetings took place lau week by Clarhorn, Robins & Hill, auctioneers. The hidding continues calm. bidding was spirited and the prices were fair. A sound and wholesome trade is looked for with confidence. The crops We good, the country is in a healthy condition, exchangehre not been in such a favorable way for a number of years, Petie is abundant in the Atlantic cities, and the prospect say therefore be said to be full of encouragement. No change and therefore be said to be full of encouragement. No change in the money market. The rates range from 4 to 5 per cent per annum, with little demand. The Western merchants continue to arrive, and the probability is that the fall trade will commence unusually early. The first regular package sale of the season will take place to day, at one of our auction stors. Domestic goods have advanced somewhat in the same by our contribution.

Pice, as will be seen by our quotations. The prospect is considered very favorable for an active trade. We have a rumor that an effort is still making to resuscitate the Bank of the United States.

Sands' Sarsaparilla-Scrofula.—Other diseases have slain their thousands, but Scrofula has slain its tens of thousans. This very alarming affection appears under a great variety of forms, from the slightest deviation from health, to the most fatal of local and general diseases. One of its most common forms is tuberculer phthis pulmonalis, or consumption of the lungs; diseases of the hip and knee joint, and white swelling; also the glands of the neek and other parts of the body. Experience has shown that Sands' Sarsaparilla is a cure for this most inveterate complaint, and in numerous instances it has brought returning health and life where the vital spark had almost fled. From its preparation and peculiar combination with other vegetable substances, it operates by removing in the first place unhealty action from diseased organs, substituting healthy action in its place, giving tone to the general emergies of the system.

For conclusive evidence of its superior value and efficacy, see certificates published in this and other city papers.

Barry's Wigs and Scalps .- A. C. BARRY, Artist in hair from London.—The real heads of hair still stand preeminent above all others. Their peculiar light, gossamer, and ventilating character—their being shaped exactly as the natural hair grows—their elasticity, and their superior material and workmanship, as well as their style of finish and arrangement, all combine to form such perfect heads of hair that they must be seen to be fully appreciated.

A new system of the art of Wir Making taught in five lessons. See a specimen of Barry's Wigs and Scalps, which will satisfy the most fastidious that he is the best and cheapest maker in the city. 145 Broadway, corner of Liberty-street, up stairs.

Jayne's Expectorant.—Look at our bills of mortality, and you wilk find that Consumption is more destructive to human life in this country than any other disease. We all know that Cough, like the warning of the rattlesmake, always precedes, as well as accompanies this terrible scourge. It is a fair presumption that every Cough may terminate in Pulmonary disease, if not checked early, and where the risk is so great, the danger so imminent, it is astonishing that individuals should be found mad enough to neglect the means of care. Dr. Jayne's Expectorant can be readily procured in any part of the United States, and the experience and voluntary testimony of thousands, the results of chemical analysis, and the decisions of professional men who stand in the first rank of medical science, all point it out as the best preparation ever invented by man, for the cure of all diseases of the Imags, chest, wind-pipe, and other organs connected with the process of respiration. Who can mistake a Wig, however artfully prepared, for the natural and living growth of the hair. There is a dull dead look, an artificial stiffness about the counterfeit, which forbids its being mistaken for the genuine article. And yet in mineteen cases out of twenty, for one-tenth of the money that a Wig costs, the bald scalp may be made to bring forth its own covering, instead of being beholden to any thatcher of sculls for a second-hand adornment. The vernal showers are not more conducive to vegetation than its Jayne's Hair Tonic to the growth of the Huir. It is is chees, or sorrow, or any other cause, has shorn your brow of its clustering carls, and thinned the once redundant side-locks which burst in such luxuriance from beneath your fashionable beaver, Jayne's Hair Tonic will give life and vigor to the roots which still remain, and in an incredibly short space of time restore who have been for years unsuccessfully endeavoring to cultivate whiskers and moustaches, will find this preparation the true Elizir Vitae.

By Daniel O'Connell, M. P.
With a Likeness of the Author. Price 25 Cents.

This is a most extraordinary book, and will, doubtless, produce a most profound impression. We talk not of what may be called the Reading Public, nor even the masses in Ireland, for whom, no doubt, a cheaper edition will be prepared, with a view to general circulation. The impression we speak of is that which must be felt by Statesmen—by Sir Robert Peel, by Lord John Russell, by M. Guizot and M. Thiers. That the volume will have an European and an American circulation, may be taken, considering the Author and the subject, as a matter of course. Next week, if not already published, it will be printed in English at Paris and at Brussels, and in a mouth there will be a translation, perhaps, too, into French. We cannot doubt that German versions will appear in Berlin, Drusden, and in Munich: for the King of Bavaria, though a Legitimist, is a thorough Catholic. It will pass the Alps, too, and "the English in Italy" will have the satisfaction of reading O'Connell's History of Ireland in "choice Italian." We should not be surprised if the Emperor of Russia would command a Sclavonian translation, if only to show the Poles that there have been more horrid, more persevering, and more bloody persecutors of the Catholic Church than he has been. As to its circulation in America, we need not speak; there will be twenty editions in twenty weeks, and, no doubt the Mexicans will specifity read the work in Spanish.

This, then, is a book universal; it will be read by all men, and in all literary languages, in the course of twelve months.

"O'Connell's Memoir on Ireland.—The most important occurrence of the week is the issue of the first American edition of this work, and at a price which brings it within the reach of every one who wishes to be in possession of such an invaluable work. The firm of Greeley & McElrath, by whom it has been brought out, deserve the lesting gratitude of the Irish citizens of this Republic, not only for the promptness with which they have got out the work, but also for the creditable manner of its execution. What Irishman will be without a copy when it can be procured for 25 cents?

CASE OF INFLAMMATION of the LUNGS CURED BY SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.—
The subscriber hereby certifies that in the month of May last he was taken with a chill, which was succeeded by a hot, burning fever, headache, loss of appetite, constipation of the lowels, pain in my side and chest, troublesome cough, expectorated microsteaked with blood, oppression in the chest, and some difficulty of breathing. I took some purgative medicine, but my fever continued; and after a few days the family physician was called in, who pronounced my case to be Inflammation of the Lungs. He gave me some medicine and applied a blister to my side, and attended me for several days.—
On the 15th of May I commenced using Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, after having been severely did for 5 days. At that time I had a bal cough, which was tight, and the expectoration, which was not very copious, consisted of a thin white mucous—my appetite was suspended—I felt tightness and oppression across my breast, poin in my side, headache, and, upon everture my myself.
